He is the judge on all paedophile cases. It's like saying, Hitler is the judge on the Nuremberg trials.

Criminal pedo network in the Netherlands

It is increasingly evident that there exists an international pedo network with tentacles around the globe, from Thailand to America. The network operates in the Netherlands. These are organized thugs who prostituted children to people in the highest echelons of our society. Besides these organized criminals act primarily in women, drugs and weapons.

These networks are led by the highest echelons of the Dutch elite and globally by the Western elite. Backed by the secret services and secret (parallel) NATO networks. NATO plays a coordinating role in this international network. Dutroux was part of this network and particularly active around NATO's headquarters in Belgium. Think also of Dutroux 'contacts with Nihoul and his contacts with senior executives. Dutroux was a very small fringe puppet that may not even know for whom he worked. He abducted and trafficked in children, who prostituted and received money. A further source that NATO networks play an active role in these cases is Cathy O'Brien. For one a dreamer, for others a wealth of reliable inside information.

It begins thus an international prostitution network to emerge. So customers are people from the highest echelons of Western society. Think of very senior military officers, senior officials (Joris Demmink) but also banker (Maurice Lippens), Bilderberg Group chairman, Etienne Davignon and other high executives. Children are preferred by the elite because they also used for rituals. It is also called ritual sexual abuse of children. It should preferably virgins or otherwise very young.

This network makes use of occult rituals and children are abused and psychologically prepared. It could also very well be that this ritual sexual abuse of children is a product of an occult (international) society.

These ancient rituals were reported as sexual escapades in Roman times between senior executives and male prostitutes.

In the Netherlands the highest man in the ministry of justice, Joris Demmink, has been accused of abuse of very young baby boys. The court case is ongoing, however Mr. Demmink is the top judge who handles all the paedophile and child abuse cases in the Netherlands. There have been several statements made by victims, including one Frank Leenders. (See online whistleblower)

Frank Leenders, according to his own statement early eighties in the Czech Republic at age 5 was first abused by Demmink. Later in life is that abuse continued.

Demmink at the time worked for the Ministry of Defence. (NATO)

But to this day refuses politics a thorough investigation into the rumors and allegations about this man. And in a press embargo on this subject seems to be effective. (based upon a Dutch article translated in Google Translate).
